Dedication

We, the class of 1960, wish to dedicate this annual to our parents for the many sacrifices they have made and their many efforts to encourage and assist us during our years at school.

TO THE CLASS OF 1960:

In this ever-changing era, when change is inevitable, the individual's responsibilities are ever increasing with the dawning of each new day. You have been graduated from high school. You have received the best available training from the present existing high school. However, you must continue to prepare yourselves for the increased demands of the future. In a few years, you will find that the demands upon you as a citizen will be greatly increased. You will have to strengthen your mental, physical, and spiritual life if you are to continue as a productive member of the society.

You have a great future before you, a future that will be filled with excitement and all kinds of advancements. You will be called upon to use your God-given talents. You have it within your power to make this future great. The success or failure of your future is up to you. Make it great.

Our sincere best wishes go with you in this new endeavor.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We the seniors of 1960 do hereby leave this document as our last will and testament, written while in sound mind (although the fact has been questioned) to be effective when we are through at Wall Lake Community School.

To the teachers we leave the peace and quiet of the halls.
To the janitors we leave our candy wrappers and scrap paper.
To the student body we leave our good scholastic records.
To our faithful librarian, Miss Sifford, we leave all unpaid fines and lost books. No notices by mail, please.
To the individual members of the under classmen we leave the following:

Bob Altmanshofer wills his hearty laugh to Joyce Clausen, if she promises not to use it too often.
Kathie Baillie leaves her letter writing to Mary Jo Beisch.
Alice Broich and Anita Campbell leave their ability to meet "people" from other towns to Karen LeStrange so she won't be lonely.
Sandra Brotherson leaves her walk to Miriam Erickson who already is developing one.
Sharon Campbell leaves her artistic ability to Russ Cook who seems to lack it.
Janice Clausen wills her ability to stay up late (to study, of course) to Gary Snyder.
Bob Coil must leave Berniece, much against his wishes.
Monica Comstock leaves her ability to hold one guy to Sandra Bedel. Good luck!
Marlene Dierenfeld and Joan Druivenga leave their ability to get tangled in the webs of their own weaving to Don Bahr, who seems to have a good start.
Francis Hink wills his ability not to stay at home to Bob Pederson.
Margaret Hopkins leaves her ability not to say much to Leila Meyer, who says much about little.
Marjorie Hundling wills her tooth-paste and brush to Dianna Eaton. Happy brushings.
Lavon Jetter wills her blush to Kathleen Raine who blushes too much now.
Dennis Karstens leaves his ability to play football to Frances Hedburg. Try not to be too rough.
Peggy Kelly wills her good recipe for apple crisp to the cooks in the hope that they will use it often.
Ron Mau leaves his driving and car denting ability to Sandra Mohr. Try not to use it.
Bob Meyer wills his "dear old Caddie" to Richard Blum. (What a blast)
Lynn Reising leaves his ability to whistle to Jerri Brotherson who should be able to break eardrums now.
Darwin Rosener and Gerald Schluter will their agricultural ability to Larry Richardson. Happy farming.
Grant Stimson leaves his smooth operating ability to Keith Tounget. (Surgical, that is)
Mavis Sigwalt wills her long pony tail (the one she had) to anyone who wants to grow one. They make very nice pulling.
Judy Tebben leaves her ability to have a one and only and still be interested in other men to Karen Hawks.
Bonnie Groen wills her pixie cut to Bill Paysen in hopes it might do things for the boy.
Carolyn Beisch leaves her eagerness to meet and mingle with the opposite sex to David Freeman. (Just mingle, that is)
Dennis Eaton wills his ability to go places fast to Richard Gosch if he needs it which is questionable.
Dorothy Greve wills her ability to hold conferences in the halls and cut them short before she's caught (usually, that is) to Lois Friedrichson who's trying hard to learn.
Karen Olson leaves her long hair to Joyce Obman, hoping she'll be gentle with the scissors.
To the class of '63 we leave initiation to be used three years from now.
To the class of '62 we leave two years of school without us. (That's rough all right.)
To the class of '61 we leave the title of "honorable seniors" to be used only if they make the grade next year.
To the town we will our footsteps as we just plain leave.

PROPHECY

Knowing our classmates and how their feeble minds work, we predict, in the future ten years, the following:

Anita Campbell has become a meter maid (parking meters), as she always has had an attraction for them.

Peggy Kelly has gone to Africa to cure her African Lung Rot which she contacted during high school.

Bob Coil is a member of Lawrence Welk's troupe. However, not as a clarinet player, but as a bubble blower.

Mavis Sigwalt, now a politician, is filibustering in the Iowa Legislature for liquor by the drink for the Republican party.

Marlene Dierenfeld, after practicing on chickens for years, is now being starred as a leading lady bullfighter.

Kathie Baillie has realized her life's ambition. At last she is a model--of diving suits.

Fred Astaire's new dancing partner is Sharon Campbell. She got her beginning in high school at the sock hops.

Carolyn Beisch has become an efficient airline stewardess, although when she first started, she let a VIP fall out over the Carribbean.

Lavonne Jetter has become a mountain climber. When last heard from, she was attempting to climb Dreessen's hill.

Lynn Reising has entered the 1970 Olympics as the diving champ from the U.S. He has perfected a new dive called the Cranium Cracker.

Smokey Bear has a new fire-fighting assistant in Alice Broich who began helping soon after she went to Washington State.

Bob Altmanshofer, a physicist at Oakridge, Tennessee, has written a book entitled Gone Fission.

Thrice married Joan Druivenga has become an old Maids' consultant. She gives helpful advice on how to get and keep a husband.

Judy Tebben is at present a big game hunter. Her favorite game is gorillas, which after she subdues them by brute strength, she keeps as house pets.

Ron Mau is now working in an airplane assembly plant testing door handles.

Margaret Hopkins is a mattress tester, and now at long last can rest her tired eyes.

After extensive study and research, Dennis Karstans has written a pamphlet, "Psychology for Psychologists."

Marjorie Hundling is a well known car salesman for "Mad Man Muntz." Her constant chatter covers up many knocks in the used cars she sells.

Darwin Rosener owns a chain of reducing salons known as "Slim's Slender-ella."

Monica Comstock is running a day nursery to gain experience in child care to prepare her for marriage.

Sandra Brotherson has devised a method by which Kitty Clover potato chips are now really "untouched by human hands." All employees are required to work with their feet.

After giving up trying to uncurl Mamie Eisenhower's bangs, Dorothy Greve has become Gorgeous George's private beautician.

Gerald Schlutter has gone to Hollywood as Yul Brynner's personal barber.

After searching for parts in movies, Karen Olson has sat down to play Mickey Rooney's leading lady.

Grant Stimson has gone to England upon call from Princess Margaret to become her personal obstetrician.

Janice Clausen is making an extra buck selling denatured alcohol to bums in Skid Row.

Bonnie Groen has become a Congresswoman from the eighth district. She was elected because of the effect of her long golden locks on all the males in the district.

Bob Meyer is struggling to keep alive in his business of making mock mink stoles for hairless Mexican chihuahuas.

Francis Hink is the president of the Goodie-Goodie Girdle Company. He's a whiz at doing the three way stretch.

Not being infallible, we can't be sure that these predictions will all come true, but wouldn't it be a riot if they did?

THINCLADS HELP KEEP WALL LAKE ON THE MAP

Third In District Meet

Comet Thinclads Crack Records To Take 4th in State

Wall Lake school's relay team figured in the breaking of state records and boosted the squad to fourth place in the class C championship meet Saturday in Ames.

In the half mile event, the team of Russ Cook, Ron Mau, and Dennis and Gary Snyder was clocked at 1:35.4, just under the 1.35.6 mark of Iowa Deaf in 1955. Finishing in second and third places were Bayard, winner of the class C district championship earlier this month, and LuVerne, winner of state class C outdoor crown Saturday.

The relay team also knocked out Bayard to win the 440-yard event with a time of :45.9. West Chester, Schaller and Lake Park also scored points in this division.

Wall Lake picked up points in the pole vault, Richard Blum tieing for fourth place; Bob Coil, taking fifth in the discus, Ron Mau fifth in the broad jump and Pat Lawler fifth in the football throw.
